thanks, I was just gonna ask where the results are...

any idea when the web site mess will be all straightened out?

is this a good time to mention how disappointed I am with SFR and their complete neglect of the

SOLO community? :p

While SFR, in my humble opinion, needs an attitude adjustment re: Solo, this is subject I suggest you bring up at a Steering Committee meeting.

When last I looked, SFR's Solo folks had won twice as many Solo National titles then any other region.

The SC isn't the place to bring that up, everyone on the SC is already pretty vocal about this and pretty annoyed.

The place to bring this up is the SFR board meetings. Not sure if people can just show up to those or what not, and I'm not even sure where/when they happen. I think its once a month.

Benny,

I think the Board meets by conference call so hard to show up. Easy to e mail or send letters.

The email addresses for the SFR Bod are on linked in, of course, SFR's website. Maybe even phone numbers and addresses. You can all look them up, contact them and ask for better service. Surprising how many members run autocrossing!

Results finalized as of Round 10. Round 11 results will be considered final after a week and then added to the totals.

Two updates in one day! What?!

Everything up to round 11 included. Trophy standings listed. I even posted how I determined the trophies for full transparency.

Btw Benny has volunteered to help with Trophy stuff this year, and I'm happy to accept his help. After everything is finalized stay tuned for a trophy opt-in thread Great job with the 2014 Season!!! Couldn't of been easy without support from the "larger" region... website support removal being a huge communications issue.

There is a call for Board Member candidates, if anybody's interested in more influence from our community.

Thanks,

Barry

That's for SF Regional Board which does very little for the autocross community, but focuses on road racing & Thunderhill. If you want to be involved in the management end of SFR Autocross, come to the monthly Steering Committee meetings. Requirements:

1. Actively running SFR autocrosses
2. Member of SF Region
3. Willingness to assume a leadership role.

Hi Isaac, I see that the points totals shows me as zero for the last event, and Jenkins getting the 200.

He wasn't there, and I was... :)

How are trophies calculated in the event of a points tie? I appear to be tied for second in ES with two trophies given but am not listed as a trophy. Now, it took me more events to get those points...so I am guessing that's why? But just wondering? In the supplemental rules there seems to be nothing about points ties? <http://www.sfr-solo.org/solo2/Results/2013/supps.html>

Ties should both be awarded #TH place trophies. I'm sure it's a glitch.
Congrats btw :)

Ben_B wrote on Tue, 05 August 2014 16:44How are trophies calculated in the event of a points tie?I also noticed that the supps say nothing about ties.

I was wondering if there was a tire breaker like number of firsts, seconds thirds etc. Though I was looking at a possibility that I'd end up with exactly the same results as my rival (same number of firsts, seconds, thirds and no shows), so it'd have to be a tie.

Cool so second place tie! Wow! Didn't expect that. Guess showing up reasonably consistently does count for something!
