In case you don't get the mail and are interested in the Nat's,

This year to better balance things, they are announcing 'core' classes that are set now, and leaving 7 (14 with Ladies') classes to be determined later after the Spring Nationals are done. They hope, I am assuming, to not have the first day run late. In a reference to last year's downpours that contributed to the lateness, the logo on that page says "Game of Cones - After The Flood"! :lol:
